BETTING IN LEADVILLE.

The Strange Wager That Nearly Cost a Young Man His Life

From the New York Tribune.

There is nothing that cannot be made the subject of a wager. In Leadville men are driven to their wits' end for matters to bet on. The Herald of that brand-new city tells of some young men who discussed the question of hanging a fortnight ago, at the mouth of a shaft. One insisted that by holding the head over forward, with the knot directly behind, respiration could be maintained for a quarter of an hour. The others ridiculed the idea. "I'll bet you $5 I can let you haul me up the shaft," said the young man, "with a rope around my neck, and I'll come out alive."

THE IDEA WAS FASCINATING,

the bet was formally made, the money put up, the young athlete suspended under the bucket by the neck and the engine started. The distance was seventy-five feet. The progress seemed to him very slow for about a second, and then he became unconscious. His companions were in the bucket watching the experiment. They put on steam, but by the time the inanimate form reached the surface it presented a horrible appearance. At first it was thought that the young man was dead but a careful examination of the body convinced a miner of experience that life was not extinct, and a vigorous rubbing, with the additional influence of liquor forced down the throat, had the effect of restoring conciousness in half an hour. He now thinks that hanging a man by the neck will kill a man if he hangs long enough. But he won his $5.

Rather Good on the English.

Incredulity was the first feeling among the Boers of the Transvaal when the news of Cetywayo's capture was spread among them. One of these descendants of a transplanted Batavian stock, told an Englishman that he would as soon believe that the British had possessed themselves of the moon as that they had got hold of Cetywayo. The skeptic's figure of speech then led to some discussion about that satellite. "I can imagine," said he, "that there are hills, mountains, water and trees in the moon. I can even recognize the possibility of a human population on its surface; but I don't admit that there can be any gold or diamonds there." "Why not?" the Englishman asked. "Why not?" echoed the Boer: "I'll tell you why not. Because if there were either gold or diamonds in the moon, England would have annexed her long ago."

Married in a Buggy.

From the Walla Walla Watchman.

Last Saturday a loving couple, with a baby to start with, stopped before Judge Lacy's residence and desired to have the knot tied right there and then. The judge climbed up and put one foot on the brake and the other on the front wheel. The candidates for matrimony held up their hands and the judge began: "Ahem! You do solemnly swear, that in the case now pending, wherein Christopher Columbus Mason and Maria Jane Thomas are deeply interested, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and no fifing, so help me gracious!" They said they would, then the judge bent over to kiss the bride, received his little fee and the newly married couple went on their way rejoicing.

A Criminal Clergyman in Texas

A special dispatch from Sherman, Texas, says: W. P. Grenslaw, one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of that place, suicided last night by taking morphine. The cause is said to be a criminal intimacy between his wife, one of the most beautiful women in Sherman, and Rev. Conrad Haney, one of the most eloquent ministers in Texas. The city is said to be greatly excited over the affair, and threats against the personal safety of the saintly seducer have been made.

A Bright Girl.

N. Y. Sun.

A worthy lady who has recently celebrated her 100th birthday can be seen any evening at her house in Mechanicsville, N. Y., baking griddle cakes for her grandchildren, and going about her work as cheerfully as any girl of sixteen plans embroidery. Five years ago her daughter died leaving seven gray-haired children without a mother's care. The aged grandmother at once filled the gap.

A Bad Breaking Out.

The eruption from which the sun was lately reported to be suffering would appear to be contagious, for the astronomers now announce that Jupiter is afflicted by a pimple. It is as large as the continent of Europe, and of a splendid vermillion color. It is situated on his "uppermost extremity," a defferential mode, probably, of saying the top of his majesty's head, and is of an oval form, appearing "attached to the planet itself."

The ladies of Reno and vicinity are invited to call and see the Large and Splendid assortment of Toilet and Fancy articles just received from New York by Osburn & Shoemaker, which they are selling at greatly reduced prices. aug15tf.

WHITE LIES AND RED.

Another Pretty Little Story Undermined.

If "white man heap lie" it may also be remarked that the veracity of Indians is not under all circumstances unimpeachable. The pretty story about the heroic copper-colored Susan who rushed into the council of the braves and effected the release of the Meeker ladies, is addled in this short time. The story repeated by the captive ladies was that among the warriors with a gorgeous blanket about her shoulders, that she made a passionate and eloquent appeal for mercy, and finally "drawing a pistol from under her blanket, aimed it directly at the face of Antelope, and exclaimed: 'I am the sister of Ouray. He is the head chief of the Utes. His orders shall be obeyed. The white squaws shall be delivered up. I will meet any chief in single combat who opposes it.' Antelope skulked away, and there was no further trouble." This is picturesque and impresive; the only trouble is that General Adams, who was present at the council, comes forward, and with the relentless accuracy of a military report, casually remarkes that Susan wasn't there.

SUSAN DASHED IN

How It Didn't Work.

Two young women were to travel, without a male escort, from Aurelius, N. Y., to San Francisco. Fearful of annoyance, they thought it would be a safeguard if one had her hair cropped and wore men's clothes. This plan was carried out; but the deception was imperfect, and in Chicago they were arrested as suspicious characters.

Suicide.

A distinguished scientist once said: "No man with a strong and healthy stomach ever committed suicide;" and yet many are suffering the tortures of the damned with Dyspepsia, when a single bottle of DR. MINTIE'S English Dandelion, Liver and Dyspepsia Pills will give relief, and, if persisted in, will cure the worst case of this distressing trouble. This pill cures Torpid Liver and Biliousness, regulates the bowels, removes pimples from the face, cures sallow complexion, foul breath, sick headache, heartburn, pain in the sides and back; is sugar-coated, and GUARANTEED to be PURELY VEGETABLE. It acts directly upon the coating of the stomach and on the liver; can be taken in any climate—wet or dry weather. Be vare of imitations. The genuine has an engraving of a lion on the outside wrapper. Price 50 cents. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker, druggists. o3

AN IMPORTANT CONSULTBTION.

Dispatches from San Francisco say: General Freight Agent Vining, of the Union Pacific Railway, arrived in this city Tuesday, and has since been in conference with Mr. Stubbs, General Freight Agent of the Central Pacific Railway. A revision or modification of the freight tariffs is in contemplation and exchange of views is likely to lead to important changes in rates of freights from New York to San Francisco. After looking the field over and receiving the opinions of the merchants, the question of renewing the contracts will be advanced.

It is a pity that Nevada is not represented in the conference by some intelligent gentleman. A change in the custom of charging California prices and local rates back would cause this this section to spring forward with new life, and it might be done if the matter was properly represented to the companies. Most men think the tariff of railroad companies are instruments of torture applied with supernatural skill. They think the officers can foresee all the little ins and outs of a country, and tell beforehand just how the rates will work. That is a mistake, the officers are always ready to listen and learn.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

President Hayes and his administration is the subject of cousiderable comment just now, and the general expression is favorable. The Richmond, Va., State says:

"President Hayes has made a good President throughout, and has done more than appears upon the surface to restore the country to the old methods and revive among us the feeling of a comman nationality. His course, it appears to us, has been steadily in this direction from the first, and the only cause of regret with us now is that the time is too shortto complete the work. It is a broad-breasted, liberal man like him that the country most needs now."

Nast fills four pages of the latest weekly with pictures which could not be improved. They are exceedingly funny. The first is poor old widow Butler, whom he dubs "Eve," mourning the loss of Adam (Charles Francis). The big drops chase each other down his nose. On the last page John Kelly is shown smashing Tilden's barrel into its original staves. But Sammy says "I wasn't in that. It was Pelton," and by a jugglers trick a brand new barrel marked 1880 appears in the corner. Conkling gets a rub and so do the roughs.

We thank the Knights of Pythias of Truckee, for an "invite" to their grand uniform ball on Thanksgiving eve. We are compelled to uniformly decline going to balls in uniform, as we are none of us "Knights." The fireman's ball at Reno is also offered as an excuse. Hope the boys and girls will have a good time.

The Independent-Republican of Gibson, Pa. speaks of a Nevada boy thus:

Francis Payne, from Nevada, is visiting in this section of country. He came by way of Niagara Falls. He called at Binghamton and made his mother a visit, and is now in Gibson. He left Gibson in 1869. He is very much pleased with his adopted home.

An exchange truthfully says that the journalist who tries to please everybody is a fawning, brainless nondescript, devoid of conscience or self-respect, whose ignorance is apparent in whatever he undertakes, as a compiler of news or a reviewer of current events, and whose gross, servile venality is indecently conspicuous in his role as a party hack, cringing at every snap of the whip and catching at every shadow of a dollar note.

Reported Dispatch From Wise.

ST. LOUIS, November 18, — The friends of Professor Wise, the æronaut, were thrown into a state of excitement to-day by the reception of a letter from Zenas Tanner, of Metropolis City, Ill., enclosing a note which was found in a bottle at a point between Metropolis City and Paducah, Ky., on the 13. The note reads as follows:

PATHFINDER, Ohio River, Nov. 2, —2:30 P. M.—Near Paducah, Ky., Going at the rate of sixty-five miles (southeast) per hour. Pathfinder in bad condition. I am almost dead with exhaustion and hunger. Eleven days since Burns' death. Good-by.
WISE.

Those who are familiar with the missing man's handwriting say, were it not for the date on the note and the locality in which it was found, they would swear Wise wrote it. He always capitalized the "F" in Pathfinder, and it was so in the manuscript. It is not probable, however, that the story will be generally credited.

Miss Sickles' Elopement.

Accounts of the elopement of General Sickles' daughter continue conflicting. The gentleman who furnished the particulars of the rumor on Sunday, said yesterday that he had heard the report from several different sources. He also said that the account of the affair had appeared in a Paris daily paper, Le Gaulois, and that it had been the chief topic of conversation upon the European steamers at the time. George G. Sickles, father of General Sickles, when called upon by a reporter yesterday indignantly denied the rumor of the elopement of his grand-daughter. He said: "Every word of the report is a falsehood. Miss Sickles has been an invalid for two years. She has had trouble with her brain; for several months she has been sick and under the care of a physician."

Chandler's Successor.

DETROIT, November 18. —Hon. T. C. Beaman, recenty appointed United States Senator to fill the unexpired term of the late Seanator Chandler, has declined, on account of ill-health, and Governor Crosswell has appointed ex-Governor Henry O Baldwin of this city, to fill the vacancy.

The "Bulletin" Free Seed Distribution for 1880.

Arrangements have been perfected for a free seed distribution among the subscribers of the "Bulletin" of several kinds of rare and valuable trees, vegetables and flower seeds. Great care has been taken to choose varieties that have been tested sufficiently in this country or elsewhere, to prove their value for the Pacific Coast, and such as are not readily obtained through ordinary channels. The object has also been kept constantly in view of obtaining such varieties as would prove, not only of benefit to our subscribers, but an advantage to the whole coast. Some of the more valuable of the list have not yet found their way into the catalogues of American seedsmen, and are not obtainable in this country. Several varieties have been ordered from England, France and Japan at large expense, and the actual retail value of the seeds to be presented to each subscriber will about epual the subscription price of this paper.

The distribution will be made during the ensuing winter, and will commence as soon as the last shipment arrives from Europe. There will be delay in the arrival of some of those from France on account of the necessity, in order to obtain perfectly fresh seeds, of waiting for the ripening of the crop of the present season. As soon as possible the date for commencing the distribution will be announced with full particulars through these columns, and in the meantime a description of each variety, accompanied in most cases by an illustration, will be published, and each subscriber will be able to judge of the adaptability of the different kinds to his locality.

In view of the seed distribution and the fact that the Reno Weekly GAZETTE, the Friday's "Bulletin" and the Weekly "Bulletin," are all given for $3, this is the greatest inducement to subscribe ever offered on the Pacific Coast nov10-1mo

That Bright's disease, Diabetes, Pain in the back and loins, Smarting, Inflammation, Calculi, Brickdust deposit, or any trouble of the Kidneys or Bladder, is cured by the use of Dr. MINTIE'S NEPHRETICUM, the great Buchu Compound. It is the most wonderful prescription ever compounded for these troubles. Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale druggists, say: "We regard Nephreticum as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy in the market." Woodward, druggist, Portland, Oregon, says: "Everybody speaks highly of it." Childs, druggest, Portland, Oregon, says: "Sold lots of it; it always does the work." Many have been cured of obstinate kidney complaints after the doctors have given them up. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker. Price $1 25. oct 3

I Wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen of this vicinity, known to every one as a most influential citizen, and Christian Minister of the M. E. Church, just this moment stopped in our store to say, "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to Shiloh's Consumption Cure." It is having a tremendous sale over our counters and is giving perfect satisfaction in all cases of Lung Diseases, such as nothing else has done. Bourbon, Ind., May 15, 1878. Drs. Matchett & Mance. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker, Druggists, Reno, Nevada. nov 3 m w f

JOTTINGS.

— Weather delightful.

— The Palace Hotel is being painted.

— See 5c. column for houses to rent.

—I Fredericks has gems to sell. Read his ad.

Several people in Reno are having their horses clipped.

— Dave Evans and M. Ross drove in a lot of calves and yearlings to day.

— A rancher from the meadows lost a horse last night. It was hauled off in a dray this morning.

— A conductor telegraphed ahead to Chamberlain for supper "for four railroad men and three gentlemen."

— The soiree at Winchel & Cuningham's will be very pleasant. Everything is being done to make it so, at least.

— The Reno Reform Club will meet at the Baptist church next Saturday evening, Nov. 22, at 7:30 sharp. Dr. J. A. Lewis will deliver the lecture.

— The large show cases at the postoffice are to be removed and side shelves and counters used in their place. Sam Myers is doing the carpenter work.

—Justice Young was occupied today by a case between M. C. Lake and an exile from far Cathay. The latter hired out to Mr. Lake for $15 a month and worked 222 days. Then he demanded a dollar a day, which was refused and the suit was the result. It was decided according to the facts.

— Hartung, the baker has a nice little dog which has a habit of catching horses by the tail and setting back on its haunches pulling them. It got a kick right in the chest yesterday while engaged in its favorite sport. After turning over about fourteen times it lit and struck for home.

A CARSON MURDER TRIAL.

The Au Fait Club Revived—Saloonkeeper's Poetry and Other Interesting Matters.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Carson has an epidemic, in fact several epidemics; and as it is impossible for the local physicians to diagnose the cases so as to come within ninety degrees of focus, of course there is only guess work. The young ones are in the throes of matrimony; the Indians in a state of war are breaking out in paint and feathers like an army of tramps just escaped from a Reno tar brigade; and the comfortable grubs who "fat at ease" over in the capitol and at the mint, have reorganized the Au Fait club to be operated through the winter months.

"VAT THE DEVIL IS AN ALL PHAT,

anyhow?" asked Muldoon as he met Pete Cavanaugh the other morning on the corner. "It isn't 'all fat,' said Pete; "it is a French name and means "way up" or something of that kind." "Oh thin!" Said the Muldoon, "may be it's 'all faith' thay mane; be gob!, I didn't think it cud be 'all phat' wid Catain Lyons in it, anyhow." You saw, of course, by our abstract and brief chroniclers' the Appeal and the Tribune, that an Indian was found yesterday at Treadway's Park with his

WINDPIPE UNSCREWED,

and a few mutilations which superinduced a trip to the happy hunting grounds. Captain Sam and Lieut. Lides took the matter in hand, summoned their relations, held a council of war, and declared that unless the authorities brought the murderer to justice the Indians would. An hour ago a procession of squaws and bucks, mixed with school children and flanked by a string of grocery and butcher wagons, came down street and made a halt at the city lock up into which an Indian was introduced who will probably feed on mutton bones till he is turned over to the tender mercies of Captain Sam and his band. An hour later assembled on the pavement of the Capitol, which was evidently presided over by Frank Brosko, who occupied the seat of Bigler's wagon. The discussion was long and earnest, and Frank's decisions were evidently satisfactory and elicited many complacent grunts; and one squaw went so far as to hold up her papoose for Frank to kiss, with the exclamation: "Heap bigger than Grant!"

AN INDIAN COUNCIL

There's a good story told here on a saloon keeper who is fond of dogs, and has a bartender, Jim —. George, our friend, was compelled, from the constant drainage of his resources, to try to stop the leak, and so he got painted which he elevated, one at each end of his mirror; on the left, "No More Free Drinks;" on the right, "No Money Loaned Over the Bar." Jim was busy sweeping out a morning or two ago, much to the disgust of three dogs blinking under the stove, when an old "stiff" entered, got his matutinal, and began to unroll a yarn of the good old days of White Pine; But Jim wasn't in a listening humor, and could not be talked over. The old "stiff," finding he was cornered, said in a confidential way: "Suppose you and I'll pay you the quarter when I unload." Jim could not see the point and after the dust had settled, relieved himself by the following, of which the "Deacon" offered to buy the copyright for just the same price per line as Longfellow got for "Keramos." He was disposed to sell until he found that the Tribune only employs one mailing clerk, and the GAZETTE three, and a machine which turns the scale in favor of the GAZETTE. Please preserve the copy for you know how valuable such Mss. become in a few years, and George thinks it will probably reimburse him to the amount of that bit.

TWO ELABORATD SIGNS

LEND ME ANOTHER BIT

LOOK AT THE SIGN.

"Look at the sign," said Jim, "my boy,
No more' free drinks," and plied his broom.
Scattering dust all over the room,
While the canines leaped in excess of joy.
And the poor old beau with a watery eye,
Gazed with surprise at the tranquil Jim,
And swore the joke was too deep for him.
"No more free drinks! Why who d'ye s'pose
Wants a free drink? Just chalk it down;
In a day or two I'll be in town
And call and settle; I'm not a beat.
But just out of change." Jim couldn't see it,
And plied his broom with greater vim.
Till the clouds of dust made the barroom dim,
"No more free drinks! well that is hell,
And if George was yere, why, mebbe you'd tell
A different tale; but I dont feel hard
At a 49 'er like you, old pard;
So let's compromise, just lend me a bit,
And damn the drink, I'll get up and git."
Jim shook his head as he pointed—"There!
Do you see that?" "No money loaned over the bar."

A SPLENDID STORE.

The Germ of One of the Great Establishments Reno will Have in Five Years.

A GAZETTE reporter who had often been struck by the neatness and taste with which the store of Sol Levy is always arranged, went through the establishment on an inspecting tour this morning and felt well repaid for the trouble. From one end to the other, through all the boxes, counters and shelves, among all the miscellany necessary to a large dry goods trade, the same order and care is found. there is no confusion nor jamming although there is not a foot of room lost. Every corner is full of goods, and every thing in its proper place. The store is on Virginia street, on the west side, next to John Sunderland's boot and shoe store and occupies a very fine brick building. The front is of

LARGE GLASS DOORS

and the whole of it can be thrown open, making two large entrances. A large counter on either side extends nearly the whole length of the long room, and at the front are covered with very fine show cases which contain the thousand and one things without which no store is comple. At the rear is a safe and desk where Mr. Levy studies up the advertisements which everybody reads in the GAZETTE. Begining at the very threshold the reporter inspected the goods just like an expert going through a mine, or a lady who wanted to buy five bits worth of goods. With the politeness of a bonanza king escorting an ex-President through the lower levels, Mr. Levy tore everything to pieces, opened all the boxes, and told the prices of goods enough to break all the newspaper men in the state; to one who is not thoroughly posted it is astonishing to see how much merchandise it takes to keep a list of customers supplied. Every part of Mr. Levy's stock is

FULL AND COMPLETE.

In the way of staples he has a long list of prints, selected in patterns as choice as silks and velvets. He has sheeting from four-quarter all the way to ten in width, which he says he can sell at factory prices. His dress goods in patterns that make a fellow wish he could wear crinoline, range from ten cents a yard up to bonanza prices.

In this class of articles he can certainly suit the taste of the most particular. There was something he called cashmers, in a lot of different colors, that range from fifty cents a yard up. Then there were stacks of plain and plaided flannels that are going at from tpenty-five cents a yard up, and a very large lot of cotton flannels besides. He has black silks and colored silks, some as low as seventy-five cents a yard and others "away up." In velvets and satins he could clothe

A ROYAL FAMILY.

He has water proof and ladys' cloth and cloakings enough to cover a seminary. He can sell cloth for men and boys' pants and let them make them up or take them to a tailor. He is selling mens' buck gloves at less than factory rates, and umbrellas at all kinds of prices. He has a corner full of ladys shawls, cloaks and ulsters. There are blankets and window blinds and plenty of them. At the back of the store the wall is hidden by rolls of rugs and carpets, for halls, stairways, parlors and bedrooms, and a big lot of towels, napkins and table linen bleached unbleached and colored The display of fancy goods is very attractive. There are velvet, silk, satin, plain and brocaded ribbons in dazzling variety; kid gloves with two, four and six buttons, in black as well as in exquisite opera shades; ladys neck scarfs and handkerchiefs in all the colors of the rainbow; fringings and headings of the latest whalebone styles; trimmings and laces, black and white, from the cheapest to the most expensive; fine nottingham and real lace curtains; tidies of all sizes and styles and nansooks (conundrum), bishop and victoria lawns and linen cambrics, card boards, zephyrs, embroidery silks, java and honey comb canvas, mottoes, slipper patterns, ottomans and holiday goods. The reporter blushed violently at the corset counter which contains goods of every color and quality. Hose for ladies, men and children were stacked up close by, and underwear for the limbs of all kinds of people. In the shoe department there is a small and well-selected stock for ladies and children's wear which Mr. Levy says he wants to close out and will sell at less than factory prices. He has bibs for the babies, scarfs and handkerchiefs and embroideries at importers' prices. If anything in the list is missed, it will be found before Christmas. Such an establishment requires great attention, and Mr. Levy heeps two men constantly busy, beside devoting his own time to the business. He informed the writer that his business had been very satisfactory since he came to Reno and that he had no regrets at casting his lot with the people of Washoe county.

BUTTONS BY THE BUSHEL

A Novel Entertainment.

The Womens' Temperance Union will in a short time give a character concert for the benefit of the society. It will be made as interesting as possible and, it is hoped make some money. Due notice will be given and everybody given time to get ready.

GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY.

A Worthy Institution With a Commendable Purpose.

The object of the society is to make a Pacific Coast Geological Collection to be given gratis to the State of California, upon condition of its being kept perfect, and to encourage the study of geology. The idea originated with a few of its members, who deplored the want of a museum, where citizen and stranger could study the natural productions of the Coast; they saw that in the rush for wealth, its citizens overlooked this important subject. They saw that thousands of energetic prospectors were searching the country for precious metals, and that they were doing so to a certain exent blindly, for want of that information which can only be gained by the careful study of a well-arranged geological museum. These men had a right to ask assistance at the hands of those who could give it. It is really a matter of surpuise how little the mining men of the Pacific Coast know of rocks and rock formation. It required years to learn that

MT. DAVIDSON WAS NOT SYENITE.

The mistake was discovered by a member of the San Francisco Microscopical Society. The terms porphyry, granite and quartzite have a different signification in each mining center. A chrome iron mine has been extensively worked for silver; realgar is mistaken for cinnabar; red jasper mined extensively under the impression that a quicksilver mine was being opened; a company was being formed to make bottles of of obsidian; mica and tellurium have been supposed to be of great value; obsidian has been mistaken for coal; grossularite has been supposed to be crystals of oxide of tin; yellow mica led to the Gold Lake excitement; micaceous iron is often mistaken for galena. To the ignorant miner, a rolled quartz pebble.

BECOMES A DIAMOND,

while the true gem escapes his notice. Platinum, for a long time was called "white gold," and was supposed to be gold, coated with mercury. Many valuable mineral substances are passed unnoticed by the uneducated prospector. It is a significant fact, that many substances are imported into the state which exist in great abundance, yet are unknown except to a few mineralogists, who are not consulted. Any farmer may have on his land sources of great wealth unknown and unsuspected. A beetling cliff may prove to be some beautiful variety of marble or ornamental stone. The society has a large collection which is rapidly growing. The number of specimens on hand now is 1116, besides a large number of duplicates. The collection embraces minerals, rocks, ores and fossils. Some of them are very valuable, while all are interesting.

IT IS THE DESIRE OF THE SOCIETY

to publish a periodical, either weekly, monthly or quarterly, to spread the useful knowledge which the investigations of the members bring to light. in order to do this funds must be raised. The financial condition of the society is the best possible. Observing the strictest economy, it has made no debts, although it cannot be said that there are any funds on hand. It has been decided by the society, in order to raise this fund, to give all who are inclined to be liberal towards scientific pursuits, an opportunity. To gain this object, any one who will give five dollars will be made a life member, with all the privileges of the society, and to be free fron dues and assessments. A great many in the interior of California and in Nevada have become members. A very neat certificate is issued which is an honor to any home, showing as it does, the liberal spirit of the head of the family.

JEWELRY

$75.00 worth for $15.00,

—AND A—

Solid Abyssinian Gold Watch FREE! FREE!! FREE!!!

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain: Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1878, we have paid particular attention to the buying of Bankrupt and Auction lots of Jewelry and Watches often buying at as low as one-tenth their value, and in no instance have we paid over one sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the heaviest dealers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July and August (the time when the jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled, and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new ones which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1. For instance, on receipt of 50 cts. we will send you, POSTPAID, any article to the value of $2 50; on receipt of $1, articles to the value of $5, and so on throughout the entire list. Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods.

Read What the Chicago Press Say of Us, And Send in Your Orders

The Sentinel, of Chicago, Sept. 9, says: "We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Inventors' Agency, No. 116 E. Washington street, Chicago. What the Inventors' Agency agrees to do, they will do. The Sentinel has advertised for the concern since its first publication, and we have yet to hear of the first complaint against it."

The Chicago Express, Sept. 3, says: "The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of 'The Inventors' Agency,' office and rooms located at 116 Washington St., Chicago. From personal inquiry and on the recommendation of the city press, we think our friends can do no better when wanting goods in that line. Give them a trial."

The American Stockman, Sept. 11, says: "We believe this institution perfectly sound and reponsible, and consequently persons need have no hesitation about sending for what they desire."

As to our responsibility we also refer you to the following firms: Blomgren Bros., 162 & 164 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.; Miller, Wagner & Umbdenstock, 139 So. Clark St. Chicago.

Before Ordering, Read the Following:

All sums of money to the amount of $1 or over, should be sent by Registered Letter, Money Order or Draft on New York or Chicago. We will hold ourselves personally responsible for any money sent as above directed. All orders under $10 strictly cash. On orders of $10 or over, $5 must accompany the order, and balance, when desired, will be collected on delivery, but no goods will be sent C. O. D. to a greater distance than 500 miles. Any money received for these goods after the stock is exhausted will be immediately returned. Postage stamps will be taken the same as cash in any amount less than $100.

If on receipt of goods you are not perfectly satisfied, return them immediately in good order, and we will refund your money.

Messrs. James S.
